

BREAKOUT HOST GUIDE

BREAKOUT HOSTS GUIDE

1. Own the tone!
  - SMILE ☺
  - Model the response you want your region to have!
  - If you're not the official host, you can still carry the atmosphere with your response!
2. Plan ahead
  - As much as possible, plan what your breakout will do
  - Prepare a few extra activities just in case you have extra time
3. Engage everyone
  - Your breakout may determine if visitors or members come back!
  - Direct questions so everyone gets a chance to talk

ANNEX

THINGS YOU COULD DO

1. Pass The Pen

- Suitable for 16 pax or less
- Have one person screen record and organise an object to be “passed” through the screen to everyone.
- Rehearse once before recording for real!

2. Form A Letter

- Suitable for 16 pax or less
- Organise everyone to form an alphabet.
- Take a screenshot!

THINGS YOU COULD DO

3. One Round Thanksgiving/Expectations For Service

- Suitable for any number
- Say what you're thankful for, then sabo someone else and let them sabo someone else and the cycle goes on

4. Hangman

- Suitable for any number
- Allow one person (or the service leader) to use the whiteboard function (on zoom)
- Get someone to choose a topic
- Service leader/game host choose a word and get everybody to either shout the letters they want to buy or type in the chat

THINGS YOU COULD DO

5. Kahoot

- Suitable for any number
- This has to be pre-planned, or use the already made ones!
- Can use this to make announcements! (E.g. which is the correct link to give? Or what workshops do we have?)
- OR a regional trivial (E.g. test about ARML, which year we won WTN, etc)

6. Everybody Stretch Together

- This might be really funny to watch LOL
- Just randomly get everybody to stand and stretch

QTHEEDGE

QTHEEDGE